01:09:35 Daniel Burdsall - TPCHD: Just put on a huge cookware exchange event this past Saturday Nov 15 at the main building at TPCHD, families could bring their old cookware and exchange them for PFAS and lead-free pans, as well as learn all about PFAS and its impacts on your health.

<https://tpchd.org/homes/healthy-homes/pfas/>

Will be allotting a smaller amount of cookware to the various Pierce County Family Resource Centers to provide to folks that aren't able to afford new cookware

Jk.

We love TPU. Thanks Dr. Gaines.

01:25:03 Evan Wood: Reacted to "Yeah, keep my busine..." with 😄

01:30:46 Evan Wood: CLC Hype!

01:33:48 Ieesha Irving: Thank goodness for the Eastside Boys and Girls Club because there aren't any openings for quality childcare in my area.

01:34:44 Ieesha Irving: I've had to decline many jobs because lack of child care.

01:35:46 CM Sadalge: District 4 is a childcare desert! We have the highest % of workers who do not have remote work options (blue collar workers), highest % that use public transportation to get to work and some of the lowest median incomes in the city. All of those things make the lack of childcare access a compounding barrier to upward mobility. Workforce, union protected job opportunities coupled with childcare is a solution to this issue. Every $1 for early childhood care and education has the effect of saving over $8 to a city years in the future. This is a WONDERFUL project!
